Greenwaters Trail No. 4250

How To Get There: Travel east on Highway 58 from the City of Oakridge for 0.2 miles to the Greenwaters Park/Rest Area entrance. Turn left at the intersection and proceed to the park area. From the parking area cross the Jim Tharpe Memorial Bridge where the trail begins.

Trail Description: After crossing the Jim Tharpe Memorial Bridge, the trail proceeds to the first of two loops. The trail winds through open stands of old growth Douglas-fir and offers a pleasant afternoon stroll or the hiker can just watch the Middle Fork Willamette River flow under the bridge.

Comments: This trail is surfaced with a fine gravel to facilitate wheel chair use. This segment of the river is a popular fly fishing spot.

Length: 1.1 miles (1.8 km)

Elevation: No elevation change - trail begins at 1,200 feet

Recommended Season:
Summer, fall and winter

Use: Low

Difficulty: Easy

Use: Hikers and mountain bikes
Not recommended for horses and motorcycles

Water: None
